March 10-12

Theatre at Barton Presents Coop's Homecoming and Student Produced Works

Barton College alumnus, Zachery Rayburn first debuted a staged reading of his original musical in the 2016 New Works Festival, which follows a group of friends as they deal with loss of their dear friend, a fallen hero and the profound impact he had on their lives. This next step in producing Coop's Homecoming presents additional new music by Rayburn and Jim Grant with further exploration of the US Marine soldier, his family and friends as they recall, celebrate and re-live moments of his life.

This series of performances also gives opportunity to stage student-submitted works of new and original material.

7:30 p.m., Kennedy Family Theatre

For additional information, contact Sherry Lee Allen, Interim Director of Theatre at Barton, at slallen@barton.edu or 252-399-6492.
